Alderman Greg Moisio
Chairman, Judiciary Committee
City of Waukegan
100 N. Martin Luther King Jr. Avenue
Waukegan, IL 60085

Dear Alderman Moisio:

On May 21, 2015 the Historic Preservation Commission held a public hearing to consider the application received for landmark designation on the following property:

308 Julian Street (Elijah P. Ferry Residence)
PIN: 08-21-210-023

In commemoration of the 150th anniversary of the end of the Civil War (1861-1865) the Historic Preservation Commission as well as the property owner, Mirjana Nikolic, are requesting the residence be designated as a Waukegan landmark under the Historic Preservation Ordinance.

Built circa 1853, the Elijah P. Ferry Residence at 308 Julian Street is linked to one of the most influential individuals in early Waukegan. Ferry, an early pioneer to Little Fort (Waukegan), was an important figure in the early development of the city. He was elected Waukegan's first mayor in 1859. While mayor, Ferry hosted Abraham Lincoln at his home following a speech that Lincoln made for the people of Waukegan on April 2, 1860. During the Civil War, Ferry was appointed to the position of assistant Adjutant-General and Colonel on the staff of Illinois Governor, Richard Yates. Elijah P. Ferry also played an important role in the development of the United States. Following the Civil War, as the country was expanding west, Ferry was appointed Surveyor General of the Washington Territory. In 1889, Ferry was elected as the first Governor of the State of Washington.

The Historic Preservation Commission voted unanimously in favor of a motion of recommendation for landmark status. The Historic Preservation Commission strongly recommends the designation of the Elijah P. Ferry Residence at 308 Julian Street as a City of Waukegan historic landmark, and respectfully requests that the City Council adopt the ordinance and Statement of Significance that Steve Sabourin prepared designating the property as such.

Attached is a Summary Report on the property, along with the application, ordinance and Statement of Significance. Please do not hesitate to let me know if you have any questions about the report or the Historic Preservation Commission recommendation. I will be available to appear before the Judiciary Committee and City Council to discuss the designation request when it is addressed.

Thank you in advance for your assistance and consideration.

Sincerely,
Ty Rohrer, Chairman

Encl.
